

THIS IS STOLEN X

WE LIKE TO PARTY. IT'S NOT COMPLICATED.

We believe in cutting out the bullshit. We believe that a good drink doesn't have to be complicated to order, or take forever to make.

Stolen X is based on a traditional spirit called Rock and Rye – a designated spirits category with roots in the days of gun-slingers – the precursor to the Old Fashioned.

Stolen X is made from simple, premium ingredients: Straight American rye whiskey, orange peel and organic raw honey. The result is a rare and delicious balance of smoothness and strength at 80 proof.

Because, call us crazy – we believe it's possible for a shot to contain the complexity of a cocktail, without using impossible-to-pronounce chemicals.

Stolen X is a shot, or can be poured simply over ice.
